

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF DAVID DOUGLAS

Thursday, June 26

Wildflower Walk

Iller Creek, Dishman Hills

Join Jack Nisbet for an evening walk up shady Iller Creek Canyon to view the same monkshoods, leopard lilies, clustered frasera, and mountain ladies slippers that David Douglas collected during his visit to our area in summer 1826.

6:00 p.m.

Meet at the

Iller Creek trailhead

9001 East Holman Road

For directions:

www.google.com/maps

Iller Creek Conservation Area

SPACE LIMITED:

RESERVATION REQUIRED

Arrangements by

Group Coordinators of Spokane

$5.00 registration fee

To register, call Harla Jean

at 509-466-2823

or email hjbiever@earthlink.net

