

SALTY TALKS

"I Do Not Go Alone"

Traveling from Youngs Bay to Grays Harbor with David Douglas, 1825-27

Wednesday,
Feb. 1, 2017
at 6:30 p.m.

David Douglas' multiple trips to the mouth of the Columbia River and the Pacific coast were dogged by stormy weather, unclear pathways, and personal illness. Yet these trips yielded some of his most prized natural history observations of the Pacific Northwest. Spokane-based naturalist and teacher Jack Nisbet, will discuss Douglas' natural history collected during these trying trips.

Please join us for the evening at the SALT Pub & Hotel. The program is free. Come early or stay late for a bite and a brew.

Salty Talks are in partnership with the SALT Pub & Hotel, Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum, Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission, Lewis and Clark National Historical Park with support from Friends of Columbia River Gateway, and the Port of Ilwaco.
