

Fall Heritage Garden Workshop

Exploring our Past & Growing Our Future

ATTENTION HOME OWNERS

The Benton & Franklin Conservation Districts and the Columbia Basin Chapter of the Washington Native Plant
Society would like to invite you to attend a

FREE WORKSHOP

November 9, 2019

Richland Public Library

955 Northgate Drive Richland, WA 99352

10 AM — 1 PM

Featuring:

Jack Nisbet ~ Author & Naturalist

Jack's latest book, The Dreamer and the Doctor, traces the saga of John and Carrie Leiberg across the Intermountain West and beyond. 1893, Leiberg wrangled a farm wagon across the Columbia Basin from Spokane to Stevens Pass, collecting a fascinating variety of shrub-steppe flora and observing farm and ranch life on the edge of the frontier. Join us for a slide presentation to retrace Leiberg's journey and think about the Interior landscape, then and now.

Ann Autrey ~ Owner, Tapteal Native Plants

Ann will share her knowledge and expertise in native plant propagation. Learn about seed collection, seed treatments and how to start some of your favorite native plants.

Ernie Crediford ~ Columbia Basin Chapter Washington Native Plant Society

A life-long lover of the shrub steppe, Ernie Crediford spends much of his free time exploring and observing the plants and animals of the Columbia Basin. Ernie is well-known for his wildflower photography which he will share in an inspirational slide show.

REGISTER
ON-LINE
HERE

Please send the following information to Heather Wendt by 11/4/19

E-Mail: heather-wendt@conservewa.net

Mailing Address: Benton CD — 10121 W. Clearwater, Suite 101 — Kennewick WA 99336

Questions? Call Heather: 509-430-3693

Name: _____ Organization: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

This workshop is free! Please register by November 4th!

Photos may be taken at this event from the back of the room. If you have issues or concerns please let event staff know.

Illustration:
Washington Jacob's-ladder Polemonium pectinatum
Jeanne Debons